Description Raw organic honey, collected from Lespedeza flowers growing in the Russia's Far East.

The honey is naturally crystallized, thick and dense, has white-amber color.

The proposed honey has been extracted in the purest place on Earth - in the wilderness of the Russia's Far East taiga (100 km from the nearest settlement) by the "old believers" communities.

Lespedeza honey has very intense aroma and is also revered for its miraculous healing powers.

It contains a lot of important microelements, like manganese, selenium, zinc, aluminum, potassium, which contribute to strengthening the body's immunity.

Lespedeza honey is one of the few that is recommended for the prevention and treatment of inflammatory processes of the kidneys, as a diuretic, it also removes toxins from the body, stabilizes water-salt metabolism. Read more about Lespedeza healing properties

The taste is very tender, sweet but not sugary, with long-lasting aftertaste. It is a true temptation: when you try it once you cannot help to take it more. )))
